H. L. HARTMYER, BOOK AND JOB PRINTER.
1882.

LANCASTER, MAY 2ND, 1882.

I desire to call the attention of collectors to my coming Sixth Sale which will take place about June 15th, when I will offer the fine and well known collection of John S. Rohrer, of Lancaster, Pa., which I recently purchased for several thousand dollars. This collection contains many choice pieces, the line of Cents and Half Cents being particularly fine. Among the former may be mentioned a very fine 1793 Chain Ameri and among the latter will be found 1796, 1836 and nearly all of the rare '40's. The silver is also very fine and includes an 1858 Dollar and 1796 Half Dollar. Among the Colonials, another rarity will be discovered, the Vermont Immune Columbia. All trash will be excluded from this sale and, with scarcely an exception, nearly every piece will be found to be either extremely fine or rare or both of these desirable qualities combined in one piece.

Thanking all for past patronage and hoping to receive many bids for present sale, I remain yours, truly,

CHAS. STEIGERWALT,
No. 130 East King Street, Lancaster, Pa.
